Episode 81: Cynthia Toolin-Wilson interviews Steve Mamanella on his book Providential (November 1, 2018) Summer At Sea The Summer

Summer at Sea is the best romantic comedy book I've read in a long time. Maybe it's because Summer's parents reminded me of my own (sorry, Mom, if you're reading this), or because Summer was relatable, but I thoroughly enjoyed this book.

The Summer Sea is located between Westeros, Essos, and Sothoryos. The Summer Sea stretches eastward from Westeros around the southern coast of Essos and the northern coast of Sothoryos. The Arbor and the Redwyne Straits are found off the southwestern coast of Westeros, between the Summer and Sunset Seas. Also in the southern Reach is Sunhouse.

Summer Sea - A Wiki of Ice and Fire

Summer by the Sea follows the story of Faith and her family on their holiday to the Outer Banks. Faith hasn't seen her sister, Casey, for some years, as she has never been able to forgive her for breaking her heart when they were younger, by stealing - and consequently marrying - the man Faith loved.

Summer by the Sea by Jenny Hale - Goodreads

A Summer at Sea is a return to a nautical theme--actually two this writer like to play with--food and hospitality. The heroine is happily meandering through her late youth, vaguely aware (because people constantly remind her) her biological clock is ticking. She is sure she prefers independence to babies unless she can find 'the right man.'
